

The luxury day

- On Thursday, on October 8th we visited two hotels; in the morning we visited the hotel du Collectionneur. It is a large Parisian hotel situated in the 8th district, 51 – 57, rue de Courcelles.
- The hotel has 478 rooms and suites.
- The manager was a fan of transatlantic boats; that's why the hotel is designed as a boat.

The hotel du Collectionneur

rooms

- Situated around the Andalusian Patio, 478 rooms and suites from 30 to 150 m<sup>2</sup> offer an exceptional setting in full heart Paris. Studied carefully, their decoration is inspired by the biggest designers of Art deco. 41 rooms and suites enjoy a private terrace some of which overlook the Eiffel Tower. The customers staying in the executive floors benefit from one executive lounge and numerous privileges.

Classic room

Deluxe suite

Presidential suite

Royal suite

The spa

- A real heaven of peace, the spa Décléor and Carita proposes well-being and relaxation in a space of more than 400 m<sup>2</sup>. Entirely dressed in a mosaic in soothing colors, its intimist and luxurious decoration becomes perfectly integrated into the spirit of the hotel. It contains about ten rooms, a big Jacuzzi, a bath of hydrotherapy with jets of massage, a sauna, an oriental hammam and a fitness room. Personal trainers propose personalized exercises indoor or near the Parc Monceau.

The saffron

- The restaurant The Saffron is the Parisian Art deco address, revealing its terraces and a cooking marrying skillfully French gastronomy and the flavors of the world. Of a capacity of 240 covers and wide glass windows opening on three raised and flowery terraces, several spaces will allow you to savor a meal in a different setting. For breakfast, lunch or dinner, without forgetting brunch on Sunday, the chef develops a French cooking which uses the flavors of the world. Our parking lot is available free of charge depending on availability for the clientele.

The purple bar

- All in purple, this elegant bar attracts a very eclectic clientele. Savor one of the exclusive cocktail parties, be surprised during our evening tasting sessions, and relax in one of the alcoves in the retro charm. Do not miss the Live evenings Music du Purple Bar which is one of the most desired places of the capital...

The trianon palace

- In the afternoon we visited the Trianon Palace which is a four-star hotel
- The hotel has got 199 rooms and suites
- It could be a five-star but, to keep an importante clientele (companies which are organising metings in four- star hotels, they want to keep their four stars.

story

- During the first world war, the hotel was an English hospital, during world war two it was an important place for the general German army; then, after the war, it became a hotel from 1945 to today

Famous people

- The hotel has already welcome famous people like the singers Charles Aznavour and Michael Jackson or celebrities like Kim Kardashian and Kenny West or the PSG's football team

The Spa

- The hotel has got a spa which, many years ago, has been named the most famous spa in Europe. The spa is composed from a swimming pool, a spa, a fitness area and many relaxation areas.

